

Who we are thanking?

Blessed are You, Hashem our G-d, King of the Universe, Who creates the fruit of the tree.

What we are thanking them for

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ
הָעוֹלָם בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הָעֵץ

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה ה' אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם בוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הָאֲדָמָה

Who we are
thanking?

*Blessed are You, Hashem our G-d,
King of the Universe,
Who creates *the fruit of the earth.

What we are
thanking them for?

What do you think they are saying? Think about polite and thoughtful words

What do you think they are saying? Think about polite and thoughtful words

MODEH ANI by Country Yossi

(To the tune of You Are My Sunshine)

Every morning, when I'm through sleeping,

I open up my eyes and say,

Thank you Hashem for my Neshama,

And for giving me another day.

CHORUS:

Modeh ani lefanecha,

Melech chai vekayam,

She'hechezarta bi nishmati,

Bechemlah raba emunatecha.

Thank you Hashem, for all the sunshine,

And for the raindrops that must fall,

For all the flowers in the springtime,

But for the Torah, we thank you most of all.

CHORUS:

Thank you Hashem for Kosher pizza,

And for creating swimming pools,

Thank you for crispy potato latkes,

And for friends and teachers at my school.

CHORUS:

Modeh ani lefanecha,

Melech chai vekayam,

She'hechezarta bi nishmati,

Bechemlah raba emunatecha.

Thank you for another day when I can use my polite words to make people feel happy.

Good morning Mummy, thank you for making me porridge for breakfast.

Thank you Ben, you're such a kind brother to lend me your ruler. I will look for mine when I get home from school.

Have a lovely day everyone, see you later.